Extraordinary performances. Up close.

The Thanksgiving Play

Matty Peterson - Undergraduate Researcher
Department of Theatre, College of Arts & Letters
Assistant Scenic Designer - 4th Wall Theatre Company

Project Background

- The Thanksgiving Play produced by 4th Wall Theatre Company
- This play tells the story of a high school theatre teacher who attempts to write and produce a Thanksgiving play that is both historically accurate and culturally sensitive. However, she is unsuccessful.
- Worked as an Assistant Scenic Designer to Kirk Domer, where I participated in design and production meetings and contributed to the creative process.

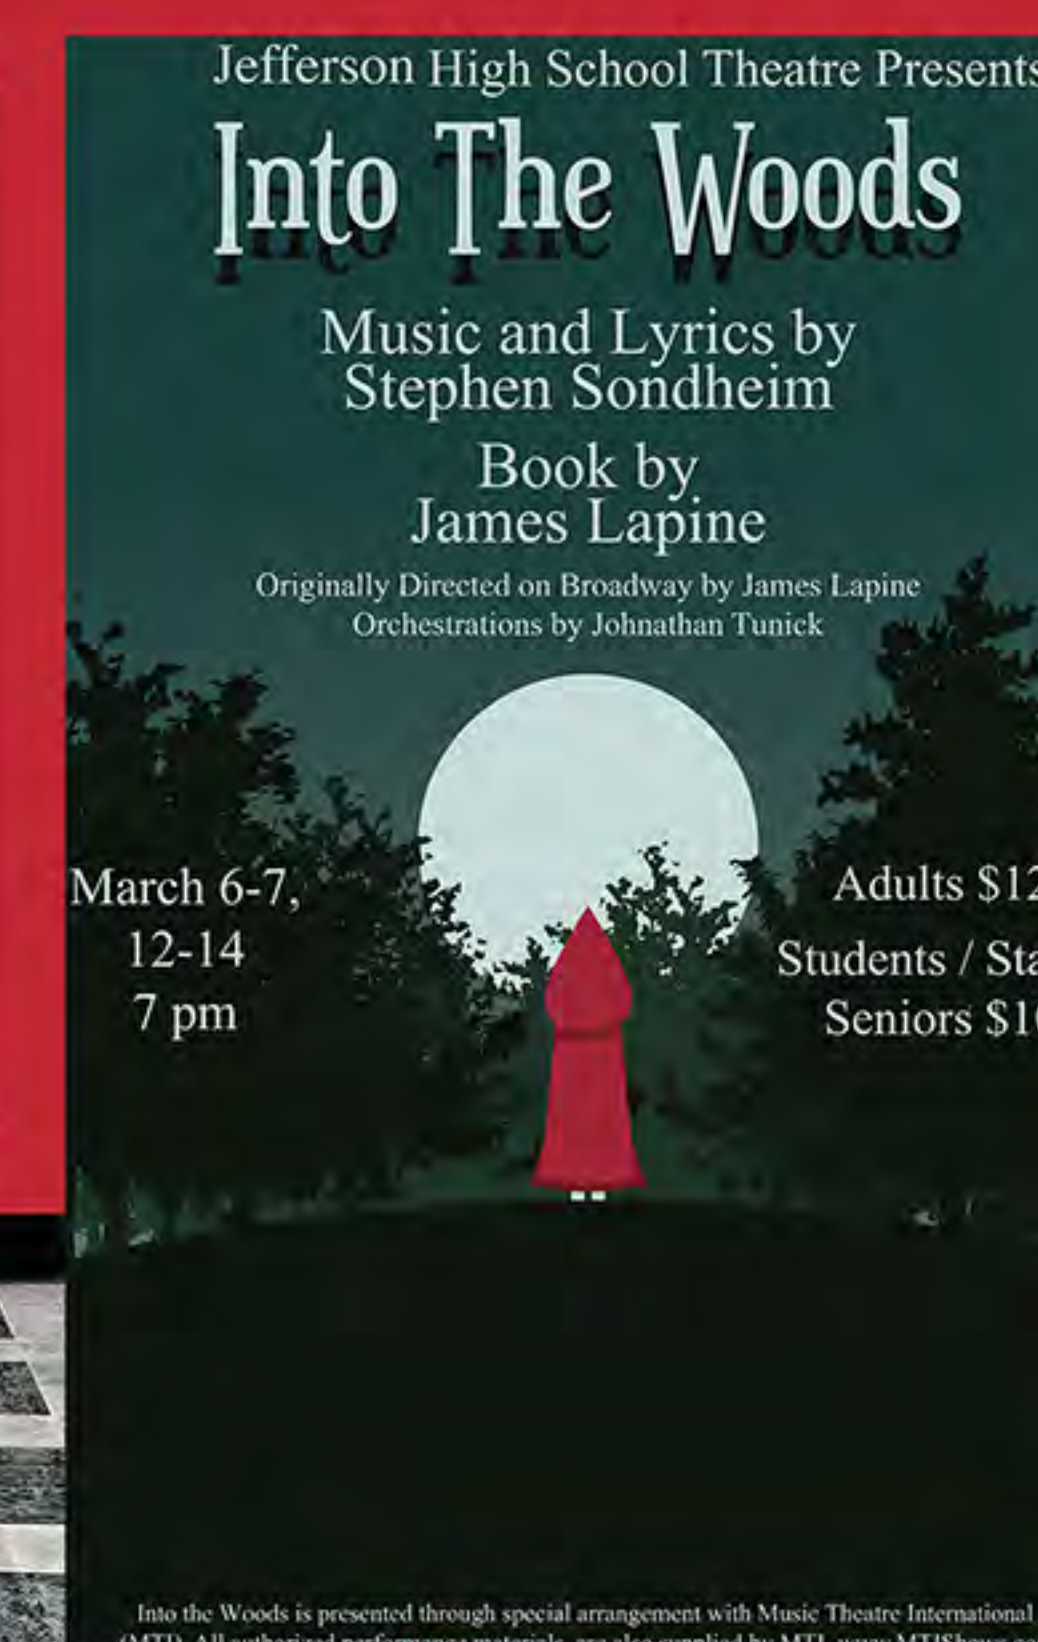

Project Experience

- Learned a variety of painting techniques, such as recreating VCT tile, Formica, and drywall.
- Acquired hands-on experience in graphic design, creating posters, and coordinating installation.
- Developed skills as a carpenter working with various power tools, assisting with the construction of the set.
